

Reading and Writing Choice Board

April 20th- 23rd

Comma's

Write a letter to a friend telling them that you miss them. Be sure to use comma's correctly in your letter.

Figurative Language

Drawing

Find an example of figurative language in something you read this week. Draw a picture to show what the phrase is saying and a picture to show what it means.
Examples: raining cats and dogs, couch potato

Opinion Writing

People move all the time. Where would be the perfect place to live? Remember to state your opinion, write three sentences to support your opinion and conclude by restating your opinion. If you want to challenge yourself write more than 5 sentences by justifying each reason by explaining how you know/believe your reason is correct.

Narrative Writing

Many people have special places where they spend time and have fun. What is a special place for you? Describe your special place and what you do in that special place? Do you read, watch tv, play, etc. Use details describe your feelings when you're in that space, what the space looks like and what you do.

Reading Game

Choose a book or chapter of a book. Create a game your friends or family could play to show what they know about the book.

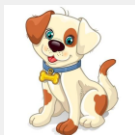

ABC Adjectives

Think of an adjective for every letter of the alphabet. (For example; A – amazing B – beautiful)

My Pet

Draw a picture of your pet and write 10 adjectives to describe what your pet looks like.

Capitalization

Write 5 sentences using proper nouns. Be sure to use correct capitalization and punctuation.

Character Traits

Choose one character from a book or chapter of a book you have read. Describe the character using one-character trait. Use text evidence (what they said, did, thought and felt) to prove how they demonstrate that character trait.
