

Reading and Writing Choice Board

April 27th- May 1st

Compare and Contrast

Choose two books from the same series. Write five or more similarities you found in both books, such as the same problem, a character showing the same character trait or a writing craft the author used

Adjective and Adverb Flip

Use a coin. Flip it. If you land on heads, write a sentence with an adverb. If you land on tails, write a sentence with an adjective.

Narrative Writing

Write to tell a story about someone/something special in your life. Think about the places you go, things you do and how you feel. Include dialogue, characters, and each character's feelings. Check for multiple forms of punctuation

What Do You Think? Character Point of View

Choose a story. Write two paragraphs or draw two detailed pictures showing how two of the characters in the story think and feel differently about the same event or problem.

3rd Grade At Home Learning ELA Choices

Literal vs. Non-Literal

Draw a comic strip with two characters having a conversation using informal English.

Prefix List

Write "pre-" and "im-" at the top of a paper. Write words with these prefixes under the correct headers. "Pre" means before. "Im" means in

Narrative Writing

Write about a terrible, no good, very bad day. This story needs to be make believe. You will need to create characters, a setting a problem and solution. Include dialogue, characters, and each character's feelings. Check for multiple forms of punctuation

Compare and Contrast

Use a Venn Diagram to compare and contrast the two stories: Shelly the Sea Turtle and Lance the Land Turtle.
