

Reading and Writing Choice Board

May 4th- May 8th

Comparing Two Stories

Read the two stories, one about Pierre's track meet and the other about Francesca's swim meet. Then, compare the two stories by using the graphic organizer included in the worksheet.

(Document is found under the "Work" tab)

Order and Sequence

Think of your favorite game. Write letter to your friend explaining how to play the game. Use as many details as possible.

Narrative Writing

Write about a family tradition in your family or a family tradition you would like to have. Describe your tradition and what you do in that tradition. Use details describe your feelings when you're participating and include dialogue in your writing.

Point of View Comic

After enjoying The Day the Crayons Quit, draw three or more of the crayons. Write a speech bubble above each of their heads. Using your own words, have the crayons state what is wrong with at least one reason why.

3rd Grade At Home Learning ELA Choices

Capitalization

Write five sentences without capital letters. Include holidays, product names, or geographic locations. Have a family member correct your sentences.

Adjective and Adverb Sentences

Write ten sentences using adverbs and adjectives. Highlight the adverbs and adjectives in each sentence.

Narrative Writing

Write about a time when you lost something. How did you lose it and where did you find it? Describe your using details describe your feelings when you lost it and what you felt when you found it. Include dialogue in your writing.

Point of View Compare and Contrast

Choose two crayons with the same point of view. Then choose two crayons with different points of view. Use text evidence to write two paragraphs explaining the points of view of the crayons.